

*On this year's event
Sint is to present
A gift lame and small
To disappoint one of you all*

*Could it be a measuring tape,
Or a box of matches perhaps?
As you can see from it's shape
It's not a bottle of schnapps*

*Although it's usefulness is disputed
Because it lacks adequate filtering
When the air is thoroughly polluted
Wearing this might be worth considering*

*So if you're doing some construction
Or when need something for a halloween gathering
Wear this on your face according to instruction
And at least Sint won't be hearing your chattering*

*By now it's probably no longer a secret what's inside
Unless you're too stupid even to divide
Just unwrap it and see with your own eyes
The crappiness of this year's surprise*

Sint
